Pastoral Letter

Dear Friends,

As a nation, in April we celebrated the Queen's 96th birthday. She is the longest reigning monarch in British history (70 years compared with Victoria's 63 years). Up until recently she attended church every week and did a full week's work! It is her commitment to serving God and the nation which stands out in her life. Even before she became Queen, she made a promise, which she has kept for over 75 years: 'I declare before you all that my whole life, whether it be long or short, shall be devoted to your service' (21st birthday broadcast, 21 April 1947). What is the secret of the Queen's consistency of character and service? In 2002 she said this: 'I know just how much I rely on my faith to guide me through the good times and the bad. Each day is a new beginning. I know that the only way to live my life is to try to do what is right, to take the long view, to give of my best in all that the day brings, and to put my trust in God.' Here are wise words from somebody who draws her strength from the Christian Faith and inspiration for those of us who want to make our lives count! The Queen has been an example of joyful, wise, and generous service on behalf of others all her life. Six months before her coronation she asked the nation and commonwealth to 'pray that God may give me wisdom and strength to carry out the solemn promises I shall be making, and that I may faithfully serve Him and you, all the days of my life.' Clearly, God has answered those prayers!!

We also celebrate Pentecost this month, the birthday of the Church:

"You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you and you will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth" Acts 1:8

We all get tired and battle weary sometimes. The disciples of Jesus had just been through a three-year long roller coaster adventure with Jesus that had culminated in His death, resurrection and ascension into heaven.

The range of emotions would have been hugely taxing in the days leading up to Pentecost, as they remembered Jesus weeping in the garden of Gethsemane, betrayed by Judas, brutally beaten and crucified, and then dead and buried. Then there had been the shock and awe of finding out that He was alive again! But then He had left them again, to return to His Father. By the time the day of Pentecost arrived, the disciples would indeed have welcomed some fresh spiritual fire!

For us today, many of us have felt emotionally drained with the uncertainties caused by Covid 19, the worry of prices rising at an alarming rate, and now the pain and uncertainty of what will happen in the war in Ukraine.

Church Council meeting – main points discussed

Easing of Covid Restrictions – As from 18th April, Track and Trace ceased. At this point the matter of receiving the chalice was discussed. The general thoughts were that it was too soon. Archdeacon Dorrien had shown concern at the LMA Vestry meeting at the risk to clerics having to consume the wine at the end of the service. It was therefore agreed that we hold off for the time being and review at a later date.

As all restrictions were now lifted, it was personal choice as to wearing face coverings. Sanitisers would be kept in place.

Re-opening church in daytime. Gareth suggested opening up again from 9am-4pm/6pm. Committee Members concerned that with cases still prevalent in the area it would be better to defer this.

Electoral roll – This has been completed but not as many had come back this time. There may be a new form later on but not confirmed when.

Sunday School – Epic Explorers have started meeting on a Tuesday evening. Notices to be circulated and Bryan to be asked to mention it when he visits the schools.

Finance Diane was now able to produce a ¼ ly report which she circulated to committee members. We need to be mindful that we are in arrears with the Ministry Share having paid only £2,000.00 for Jan-March.

Following discussion it was decided to accept Diane's proposal to pay £4,000.00 before the next payment was due. Ceris seconded this and members agreed, with a further advance being made if possible.

Diane had reported to the LMA the problem of being able to pay our Ministry Share; we need to be seen to taking this situation on board ourselves.

Archdeacon Dorrien had indicated that the Diocese was looking into the whole matter of Ministry Share and we would be informed the outcome in due course.

British Gas Care Contract for the boiler has ended.

Parish room Gareth reported that he had contacted the contractors for the underpinning work and was waiting for a reply.

He thanked Jeanette for her input regarding the charities funds. Jeanette responded that she had been in touch with the Lotteries Fund and would have news for us when hopefully a meeting could be arranged to discuss the Parish Room along with other projects and organisations in the Town.

June 5th – There would be a special service at 9.30am to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. Invitations to be sent to KTC and uniformed organisations. Each church in the LMA had been asked to have an Open Day so that we could see what churches were doing. Brenda proposed we hold St. Mary's on Saturday July 2nd between 10am-2pm. Organisations within the church to set up displays and activities .

Llanddarog were holding theirs on June 11th.

Brenda raised the question of keeping in touch with the children who had been baptised, as Maureen James who used to do it was no longer on the Church Committee. Jeanette kindly agreed to take this on. Brenda suggested that MU baptism anniversary cards be used instead of observing birthdays.

Nevin informed the meeting of the situation regarding the electric meters in St. Teilo. He would contact SSE to sort this out.

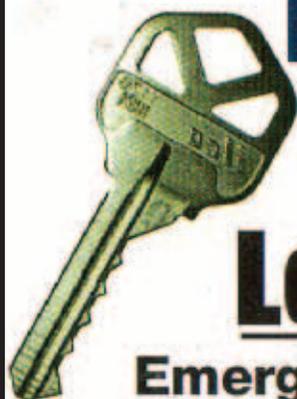

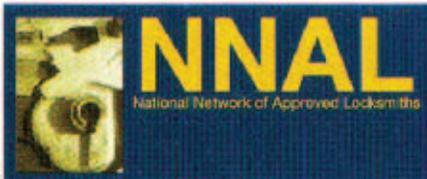

He also reported that a tree had to be taken down following the storms.

Archdeacon Dorrien had been made aware.

Ieuan asked about the Incumbent Board and whether it could be updated. Nevin to make enquiries as it was a specialist job.

Jeanette informed members of a Tea being held in the Princess Gwenllian

Centre to mark the Jubilee on June 6th between 2pm-6pm. Names needed to be given so that catering and transport could be arranged.

Before U were thought of or time had begun, God even stuck U in the name of His Son.

And each time U pray, you'll see it's true

You can't spell out JesUs and not include U

You're a pretty big part of His wonderful name

For U, He was born; that's why He came.

And His great love for U is the reason He died

It even takes U to spell crUcified.

Isn't it thrilling and splendidly grand

He rose from the dead, with U in His plan?

The stones split away, the gold trUmpet blew, and this word resUrrection is spelled with a U.

When JesUs left earth at His upward ascension,

He felt there was one thing He just had to mention.

"Now go into the world and tell them it's true

That the love I have shown is not just for U."

So many great people are spelled with a U

Don't they have a right to know JesUs too?

It all depends now on what U will do,

He'd like them to know,

But it all starts with U. Author unknown

Mothers' UNION

Christian care for families

Branch News –

Our branch meeting is on Wednesday 8th June at 3.00pm when we celebrate the Platinum Jubilee. We will be sending invitations to our Indoor Members for this special occasion, hoping that they will be able to join us.

Later in the month our Diocesan Gathering will be on Wednesday 22nd June in Bronwydd Hall from 2pm-4pm.

Jubilee Summer of Hope

Mothers' Unions is grateful for the support and encouragement of Her Majesty the Queen, our dedicated Patron for the last 70 years. Her dedication and resilience through the decades has cemented her image as a strong and inspiring female role model.

In honour of this, we are focusing our Jubilee Summer of Hope on supporting the next generation of female leaders from the grassroots up: supporting women with skills, knowledge and confidence to shape the future and transform communities and families for the better.

In line with our goal, we are asking members to combine their Jubilee celebrations with a Summer of Hope event – this could be with your local branch, church, family or wider community.

This summer, join us in celebrating and supporting women in leadership roles

Caritas became an agent of change in her community when she took on the role of a volunteer in Mothers' Union's literacy programme in Burundi after becoming literate herself. She received training in literacy, savings group formation, business skills and parenting. Today, she supports many to realize their potential.

She is also trained and serves as a catechist in her Church; one of the very few women in her community who have achieved this.

Caritas is an inspiration to women and men alike. She not only improved her own life, but others' too. She continues to serve her community as a female leader. Her example sheds light on the power of women in leadership positions.

Mothers' Union plays an important role in supporting women like Caritas in their individual journeys to realize their full potential and make a difference in their communities, who in turn empower other women to follow the same path. You can support this journey of transformation by organizing a fun Summer of Hope event!

THE newly enthroned Archbishop of Wales, the Most Revd Andrew John, marked the formal start of his new ministry with an apology and a commitment.

Archbishop John, who remains the Bishop of Bangor, was enthroned in a national service at Bangor Cathedral on Saturday, although he has been serving as Archbishop since his election last December (News, 6 December).

In his enthronement sermon, the Archbishop referred to the war in Europe. “The bloodshed in Ukraine, sanctioned alarmingly by a part of the Church, has reminded us that it is less easy to keep the peace than to start a war. Contending for the truth is costly. Whenever justice is compromised, we become complicit in collaborating with evil.”

Archbishop Andrew had called on the Russian Orthodox Church to condemn the invasion of Ukraine in his address to the Governing Body of the Church in Wales last week (News, 29 April).

The Christian approach to conflict was different, he said in his sermon. “When we resist evil and injustice — as we must — we also need something which takes us beyond the missiles, beyond conflict to a place where there can be reconciliation and a restoration of peace.”

It was this “power to do things differently” that he wanted to see used in the forging of the future for Wales and for the Church in Wales.

“We don’t have an unblemished record when it comes to the use and misuse of power,” Archbishop Andrew continued. “We have let down survivors of abuse and failed to admit our shortcomings, preferring at times to protect our reputation above the individuals damaged by our neglect. We owe an apology to those whom we have failed — and make that apology unreservedly.

“We have also found working together as Churches, at anything more than a local life, to be problematic, and this is, surely, a sin. For my part, I want to invite colleagues to a conversation about ways in which, together, we can bless the people of Wales — in our shared commitment, in both our languages, to all our communities.”

He said that he would be writing to the other Churches in Wales “for honest conversations about where we are and how we can make the saving love of Jesus Christ more visible across this land”. He also issued an invitation to the leaders of the other faiths: “We need each other, and we can do more together than apart. . . How we can manage a future which proves better than our past?”

He also wished for that same spirit of humility and honesty to inform national political life in relation to such issues as climate change, housing, the cost of living, and the sustaining of the NHS. “There is a power in saying sorry and taking appropriate action so confidence and trust can be restored.”

Archbishop Andrew ended the sermon on a personal note, describing how his youth had been inspired by Llanelli rugby and Liverpool football. “So this remains my deepest hope: that Wales can know redeeming love, never lose to Italy again at the National Stadium, Pep [Guardiola, the Manchester City manager] comes second, and that what lies before us is like the promised land of old — full of hope and promise.” (Church Times 3rd May)

When slavery became illegal

It was 250 years ago, on 22nd June 1772, that the Court of King’s Bench ruled that slavery was illegal in England and Wales. It remained legal in British Overseas Territories and colonies until 1833.

In the 1772 case of Somerset v Stewart, William Murray, Lord Chief Justice Mansfield, made a very specific ruling that it was illegal for a particular slave, James Somerset, to be transported back to Virginia, where he had been bought by his master, Charles Stewart.

Somerset had been baptised in England the previous year, and his godparents obtained a writ of habeas corpus to prevent his kidnapping and transportation, and the judge ruled, rather reluctantly in view of its possible implications, that such forcible transportation was illegal.

This was not of itself a declaration that slavery in Great Britain was illegal, but it was reported as such in the press, both here and abroad, and widely celebrated by those of African descent, as well as many others. However, it was not generally enforced, even in the narrower sense.

The legal status of African slaves in Britain and its colonies in fact remained unclear until the early 19th century. The Abolition of the Slave Trade Act in 1807 made the slave trade illegal; and in August 1833 the passing of the Slavery Abolition Act meant that almost all black men, women and children held as slaves in the British Empire – around 800,000 people in all – were given their freedom.

Our May meeting was also our AGM. Bobbie thanked the committee and members for their support and asked if anyone would like to stand for office. No! So a show of hands was asked for to confirm the members wished the committee to continue in the present format. This was unanimous. Ieuan, on behalf of us all, thanked Bobbie for all her work and caring she puts in to being Chair of our group. As we are having a stall at the carnival Bobbie asked members for donations of toiletries, and acknowledged how generous they have always been in the past.

Tŷ Golau –

Given it had been St George's Day just before we came back from our Easter break, we took the opportunity to celebrate All Things English. We've mentioned before how much we like to sing and in this session we included songs such as Maybe It's Because I'm a Londoner, and the White Cliffs of Dover. We also had a discussion about our favourite English food and suggestions such as fish and chips (in newspaper, of course), bangers and mash, and Yorkshire Puddings were put forward. The trouble with this discussion item was that it made us all feel rather hungry! As we have mentioned before, our manager, Janet Lewis, likes to dress up and this time she came as a Pearly Queen. She told us that she had bought her jacket in a charity shop and it only cost her £1.50. Unfortunately, it came without the pearly buttons attached and so she had to buy those separately at a cost of £18!

Of course, the Queen was mentioned many times during the session and Jan told us about the occasion she attended a garden party at Buckingham Palace. She had been invited because of all her fantastic work with Tŷ Golau and took Bryan, her husband, as her Plus One. Unfortunately for Jan, the Queen, Prince Philip, Princess Anne and Prince Edward all stopped to chat with him rather than her!

After another break for a bank holiday, we came back full of enthusiasm. Our topic – dances – had been specially chosen by two of our attendees, Roger and Janet, and Mark, one of our trustees, had put together a selection of films showing all kinds of dances. We saw the Charleston, Tango, Foxtrot, Jive and Twist to name but a few – dances which were popular from the 1920s to the Sixties. There weren't many people whose feet didn't tap along to the music. However, one couple, Keith and Pam – aka Fred and Ginger – weren't satisfied with just tapping along, they got up and danced, much to the delight of everyone else in the room. National dances were also covered – Scottish, English Morris Men, Welsh folk dancing, and Irish Step Dancing à la Riverdance. Of course, we included a few songs during the session – Que Sera, White Cliffs of Dover, and Jan's favourite: Grandfather's Clock. We might not have met up much over the past month but we step very easily back into the comfort of our friendships in the group which resemble a family more than a therapeutic group.

The Fire of Pentecost

You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you and you will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth" Acts 1:8

We all get tired and battle weary sometimes. The disciples of Jesus had just been through a three-year long roller coaster adventure with Jesus that had culminated in His death, resurrection and ascension into heaven.

The range of emotions would have been hugely taxing in the days leading up to Pentecost, as they remembered Jesus weeping in the garden of Gethsemane, betrayed by Judas, brutally beaten and crucified, and then dead and buried. Then there had been the shock and awe of finding out that He was alive again! But then He had left them again, to return to His Father. By the time the day of Pentecost arrived, the disciples would indeed have welcomed some fresh spiritual fire!

For us today, many of us have felt emotionally drained with the uncertainties caused by Covid 19, the worry of prices rising at an alarming rate, and now the pain and uncertainty of what will happen in the war in Ukraine.

So, what better day to pray for fresh spiritual fire for each of us? As we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and birth of the Church, let us thank God that He will never leave us or forsake us.

Father's Day

Fans of the popular Star Wars films were surprised when Darth Vader said to Luke Skywalker, "I am your father." This unexpected disclosure paved the way for future surprises in the episodes that followed.

Many times, Jesus surprised His hearers with parables that had unexpected twists and turns. No doubt He astonished the disciples when He first called God 'Father' and went on to instruct them to pray saying "Our Father in heaven...". No one had called God 'Father' before!

Shortly before His arrest, trial and crucifixion, Jesus talked to His disciples about God the Father. He said: "In my Father's house are many rooms." This prompted Philip to ask: "Show us the Father, that is all we need." Jesus replied: "Whoever has seen Me has seen the Father."

Jesus knew this concept would be hard to grasp and so had to frequently speak about God as His Father. For three years the disciples had listened to profound teaching and witnessed miracles. They knew Jesus was different, but as His ministry drew to a close they were learning more about the special relationship that God had with Jesus.

On 19th June it will be Father's Day. This is an occasion to remember the role our dads are playing now or have played in our lives. Hopefully, we have good memories and recall times of loving care they showed to us.

Unfortunately, some people do not know their fathers, or they have been absent for long periods or may be neglectful, deceitful, or abusive. Sadly, some children and adults would rather not remember their fathers, having suffered some trauma or family breakdown.

It is good to know that God is not like this. Jesus came to reveal God as our Heavenly Father, who is loving, compassionate, merciful, forgiving, and caring. God is the model father who knows what is good for us and wants the best for us.

So, Father's Day can be a reminder that we are God's children, and that we can possess the blessings He has kept for us. In the story of our lives, God has revealed Himself in a surprising way. He says to each one of us, 'I am your Father'. Now that is something to celebrate!

Over 50's Club Our April and May meetings were most enjoyable having been entertained by our own members. Marian demonstrated her artistic skills as a patchwork sewer, showing us the most colourful and intricate creations. Mary Buffrey retired from the Nursing profession gave us an insight on the life of Florence Nightingale, and how "The lady with the lamp" worked tirelessly to improve all aspects of caring for and nursing the sick injured soldiers during the Crimean war. The visit to Narberth was a welcomed boost, and the outing to the Rheidol Railway and Aberystwyth was very enjoyable. The arrangements for our Jubilee tea are well in hand. Refreshments for our May meeting were supplied by Aeres and Christine, and served as usual by Gina and Carl. No bingo was played at these two sessions. Our thanks to everyone who contributes towards the bring and buy table at our meetings on the first Wednesday of each month.

Condolences The village was saddened to hear of the sudden passing of Mr Christopher Jones, Ger y Gwendraeth. Christopher was born in Glyn Road and was a Mynydd boy through and through. Despite having suffered ill health throughout his life, he bore his illness with great courage and, enjoyed nothing more than helping people. A great stalwart of Clwb Rygbi Mynyddygarreg, he was a very popular and helpful member. Likewise, his help over the years to the Neuadd was most appreciated. A good crowd attended the funeral at Llanelli Crematorium and afterwards the refreshments at Clwb Rygbi Mynyddygarreg. Our sincere condolences are extended to his family.

Eisteddfod Mynyddygarreg was once again a huge success with record breaking competition entries. The standard of competition was very high and the Music Judge, Mrs Davinia Davies and Prose Judge Mr Aneurin Karadog commended everyone taking part. Winner of the Chair was Mrs Judith Morris, Penrhyn Coch, Aberystwyth who, according to Aneurin Karadog was a most deserving winner. The Eisteddfod Chair was crafted by local boy, Huw Morris and the winning Bard is awarded a small replica chair for their keeping. Guest President of the evening was Mr Geraint Davies, Llangennech, a Mynydd boy born in Old Shop who spoke fondly of his upbringing in the village. Organizer Mr Mansel Thomas wishes to thank everyone for taking part and those who worked in various capacities on the evening and beforehand. The village owes a great debt to Mansel for his hard work in ensuring that this great old

“In life, we loved you dearly, in death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place, no one else will ever fill.”

On the 7th of May was the PTFA Fun Day. We were very lucky with the weather and we had a glorious day. All the money made will go into buying equipment for the school so thank you to everyone who came.

The PTFA would also like to thank the hall committee for their continued support and Mike Thomas and his donkeys. Both are very supportive of the PTFA and we can't thank them enough. On that note we would also like to pay tribute to Chris Jones, known to all as 'Penguin' who passed away recently. He was a great friend to the school. Every Christmas he would bring the donkeys and Santa to school and was Santa on many occasions. He was always happy to help the school and we will miss him dearly.

Eisteddfod MYG was held on the 14th of May and the children took part in the choir, art, singing, reciting and instrumental competitions.

There were lots of successes and the children had a special assembly on the Monday after to celebrate their achievements.

We would also like to congratulate one of our pupils, Ziyah Onoh, who is the Overall Welsh champion for boys Level 3 in the Welsh tumbling R&C league 1,2,3. He won 3 golds in all his competitions and is now heading off to Deeside for the UK competition. Pob Lwc i ti Ziyah!
