Pastoral Letter

Dear Friends,

As well as being Vicar of these three churches and Area Dean of our Local Ministry Area, I also have the privilege of being involved in the vocations process in the diocese. This entails working with people who are investigating a calling to some form of ministry in the diocese. Most of these individuals are looking towards ordained ministry, some to other areas. Part of my role is to get them to explore what they think that God is calling them to do. For some it is fairly clear that their path lies towards priesthood, for others it is not so obvious and for some it becomes apparent that their call to serve God and his church lies in a very different direction. What is clear with all these people is not always where they may end up, but that they have a desire to serve the church in many varied ways. Most of these people are already working hard in their local churches in many differing roles and for some this is where their calling lies, not in the priesthood. It is important to remember that church can operate without a Vicar, but it cannot operate without the many people who work so hard in the background as well as those who support their church and all the wonderful and glorious ways that we do. This is all part of ministry, you don't have to wear a dog collar and a cassock to serve God and his church.

Ministry, in all its forms, by its very nature is sacrificial. We all give something of ourselves in all we do: his might be money, it might be time and skills, it might be prayer or a listening ear and for all of you who support these three churches I thank you from the bottom of my heart for all you do. We are so blessed in all these three churches to have keen and able volunteers to help keep things running (although more are always welcome!) and I feel most privileged to serve you all as your Vicar, I couldn't do it without you.

This is the time of year when we are encouraged to think of those who have done so much for us, both with Remembrance Sunday and the feasts of All Saints and All Souls and it is important, that we remember the sacrifice of those who fought for this country and perhaps did not return but also the personal sacrifices that others have made for us and perhaps still make for us, both big and small. To serve another is always a sacrifice and we serve our God by serving others. Thank you all for the sacrifices that you make, for your service and ministry, whatever it is and for the part you play in the mission of God in this place. God is with us as we go forward together and build His kingdom here in this place.

Blessings Fr. Jim

Prayer Corner:

We continue to pray for all those in our community who are unwell either at home, in hospital or in residential care just now. By the votive candle stand in St. Mary's, there is an intercessions book where you may leave any prayer requests which will be prayed at the Wednesday morning Eucharist service. Lord of all blessing, you make holy the wholeness of those anointed with the sacred oil of healing.

For those who have died recently in our community and for those bereaved by the loss of a loved one we pray: Comfort in special measure those who grieve for others, clothe the heavy heart with a garment of splendour and give them garlands instead of ashes. Amen.

It has been decided to hold meetings at alternative times in future in a bid to encourage more members to join us. In June at the Cathedral, Bishop Dorrien challenged us to get 5 new members in this 150th anniversary year. Therefore our November meeting will be on Wednesday 11th November at 7.00pm and will take the form of a discussion 'Who would you invite to dinner and what would you serve them?'

Look out for details in church of our 16 days of Activism campaign from 25th November -10th December.

Advance notice that there will be an Advent Carol Service on Monday 7th December at 2.00pm with refreshments to follow.

Thanks to those people who continue to support our projects by knitting teddies for the seafarers, and making cross in your pockets for the hospital chaplain. We are very grateful.

1st November -International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church

More than 360 million Christians worldwide face persecution in their home countries. This includes harassment, detention, legal restrictions, violence, torture, and even death for their faith in Jesus.

The Bible tells us to pray for those who are persecuted, as if we were ourselves mistreated. It says that if one member of the Body of Christ suffers, we all suffer (1 Cor. 12:26).

And so it is that for more than two decades the World Evangelical Alliance has organised the International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church (IDOP). It has become a global event uniting hundreds of millions of Christians worldwide.

The day is held on the first Sunday in November, in order to align it with the liturgical season of All Hallowtide, which remembers both Christian saints and martyrs.

The IDOP is also supported by Open Doors, The Voice of the Martyrs, and Christian Solidarity Worldwide (CSM), among others. More details at: <https://idop.org/web/>

The next issue of the magazine will be a double one for December/January 2027. Please submit any items no later than 16th November please.

Newyddion St. Teilo News

And here we are, November and approaching Advent. We will mark All Saints and All Souls days, Remembrance Day, not forgetting our friends in America and Thanksgiving Day on the 26th. And of course, for the youngsters, Guy Fawkes Day on the 5th November when we see huge firework displays or small garden displays, getting noisier with each passing year!! The shops will be now full of Christmas sundries, decorations, shining lights, Christmas Puddings, Carols and Christmassy songs blasting in supermarkets, but for me, the best thing is to see the loyal troop of Salvation Army men and women rattling their collecting tins and, if very lucky, to hear their band playing on a street corner.

And Advent begins on Sunday the 29th, when the time has come to wait, be still and prepare for the celebration of Jesus' birthday, his coming. We light the Advent Wreath and await the four weeks to come, bringing hope, peace, joy and love. As we open our Advent Calendars, may they be the modern type containing chocolates, gimmicks or the good old-fashioned ones (as I have) containing a little piece culminating on the 25th with the full Manger tableau, may we not be counting down the days but, count it as bringing this amazing happening a day closer.

MYNYDDYGARREG SENIORS CLUB's October meeting was very well attended. The Chairman welcomed three guests with view to becoming members namely, Keith, Pauline and Glenys. Minutes were read by the Secretary, Caroline, and these were accepted. There followed the Lord's Prayer. Barbara as Social Secretary gave an account of the visit to Hereford and Oak Church Garden Centre which sounded like a really lovely outing. Plans to visit Vincent Davies store in Haverfordwest with a meal in a local hotel were discussed for November. Non-members are as always very welcome to join us on these trips and we thank those who do support us as a small club, in helping us to meet transport costs.

Birthday wishes were extended in song to two members and refreshment ladies were Peggy and Mair Anlais. The raffle was won by Dorian and to end the meeting a game of bingo was played, winners being Annette, Dorian and Liz.

The Chairman then introduced the guest speaker, Cllr. Carl Peters-Bond, of Biopharm UK Ltd, Hendy, who gave the most interesting and fascinating talk on leeches and their important use in Medicine. Carl has worked in this field for over thirty years and he did indeed open our eyes to how vital leeches are in recovery procedures and, how he sources and then supplies his bred leeches worldwide. Thanks to Carl for speaking to

The Murder Mystery evening at the Neuadd held recently was very successful with the local KAMPS group entertaining a capacity audience who turned out in full fancy costumes of the 20's era, a sight to behold. Guests enjoyed a buffet supper and a variety of Cocktails.

The recent 'Ar Lôg ' Concert held at the Neuadd was a huge success. Visiting Mynyddgarreg as part of their 50th year celebrations, organizer Helen John wishes to thank them and all who attended along with the generous donations of Raffle Prizes etc. given towards the appeal. A sincere thank you to the Neuadd for all the support shown. The proceeds were in aid of the Chemotherapy Unit, Prince Philip Hospital.

Congratulations and the very best of wishes to Margaret Hughes on her big birthday, reaching her 90th year on October 18th.

Why you should not squeeze your teabag.

More than eight million of us drink at least two cups of tea a day. Many of us drink five cups or more. As a nation, we love tea.

George Orwell loved tea. Back in 1946 he even wrote an essay, 'A Nice Cup of Tea' to set out his 11 rules for making the perfect brew. But nowadays, we turn to chemistry professors on the Tea Advisory Panel for their tea-making tips.

Why chemistry professors? Because there are almost 2,000 chemicals in tea, which is a "wildly rich molecular mix". And everything you do to your tea changes its chemical makeup.

So – some tips: First of all, use boiling water on the tea leaves.

Secondly, warm your mug or teapot. That ensures the water is HOT when it hits your tea leaves.

Thirdly, swirl the bag or pot – swirling releases more of those subtle flavours.

Fourthly, let it mash, steep or brew for three to five minutes, to get the best flavour.

Fifthly, never squeeze your teabag! That releases bitter tannic acids.

Sixth – add the milk last, or the water won't be hot enough to brew your tea. Apparently, adding milk first is a historical relic from when boiling tea could break fragile china cups.

Seventh – take a moment to enjoy your tea. Chemists stress that medium to strong tea is really good for you. It increases your hydration, your cognitive function, and your bone health. It even helps cut the risk of type-2 diabetes and heart disease. Finally, beware tea in America. They do odd things with it there. They use lukewarm water over indifferent tea bags. Even worse, they sometimes put a teabag in a mug of cold water and then boil it in a microwave. This is sacrilege!

Poetry Corner November

While I was on Retreat at St. Non's last month, I came across this poem in the Cathedral and share it with you:

In 2020, Siôn Aled Owen, a Welsh poet and theologian wrote this about St. Davids:

A village that thinks it's a city,
tucked in a far corner
of a nation
that's sometimes just part, or so it seems,
of another Nation more Great,
maybe.

With its surprise, surprise oratory waiting to be found by those who seek or not.

And though the many-chambered edifice
now ascending the valley
would have shocked Dewi with the descending visitors,
ghosting invaders,
the shy sanctuary,
the status understated,
hidden in plain sight
from the heart of the smallest city would,
I dare imagine,
have warmed a final smile
gracing his legacy:
Do small.
Build big.

2nd November -All Souls' Day, a time of reckoning with the past

The early Church was slow to dedicate a liturgical day to offering prayers and masses to commemorate the faithful departed. But, in time, prayers were offered on behalf of dead monks, that they might attain 'the Beatific Vision' through purification, which the Church later described as Purgatory. Odilo, the powerful abbot of Cluny, (d 1049) decreed that All Souls' Day should follow the feast of All Saints' Day.

At least four ancient English dedications are known, the most famous of which are All Souls College, Oxford and the church in Langham Place in London.

In bygone centuries All Souls' Day was certainly uncomfortable for anyone who had wronged a person who had then died. For it was believed that souls in purgatory could appear on earth on this day, in the form of ghosts, witches or toads, to haunt anyone who had wronged them in life.

On a more cheerful note, it was also believed that you could help the dead on this day by almsgiving in cash or in kind. Some of these beliefs seem to have been caught up in the popular customs of Hallowe'en.

When the Reformation came, the Protestants disregarded the idea of Purgatory, and this feast day remained with the Roman Catholic Church.
